Dances.

The Wednesday night dances at the Country club will be resumed this week. Through the courtesy of the commanding officers of the regiments stationed here, the army hands will play the dance music. The Eighth cavalry band will play Wednesday night, a very successful dance was given Saturday night by the Women's Benefit association of the Maccahees, Review No. 42, in the Knights of Pythiam hall in the Lanier building. There were about 300, present, The rooms were decorated with bunties in the national colors and American flags, Punch and refreshments were served during the evening. The committee in charge was composed of Mendamss Denna Klugel. J. E. Sterling, C. E. Britton, W. S. Culver and A. C. Smith, Mr. J. E. Sterling and Mrs. C. E. Britton presided in the punch bow!

The west end dance of the El Paso Country club was attended by a rather small crowd of dancers. Among some of these were: Col, and Mrs. George C. Barnhardt, Lieut, and Mrs. Troy H. Middleton, Lieut, and Mrs. Troy H. Middleton, Lieut, and Mrs. Roorze C. Barnhardt, Lieut, and Mrs. Roorze C. Barnhardt, Lieut, and Mrs. Roorze C. Barnhardt, Lieut, and Mrs. R. K. A delightful dance was enjoyed by the older students of the El Paso School for Girls Saturday night, given in the recreation room of the school, by the principals of the school. Miss Cora W. L. Stater and Miss Olga Tafel. The rooms were decorated in a plan of pink and green. A friess of ity vines extended about the walls. Fink shades covered the lights and pink and green were the colors of the punch, served during the dancing and also the ice course, served during the intermission. The opening march was led by Helen Stewart and Donald Platt, with Dorothy Ormshee and Preston Roberts as second couple and Dorothy Walter and M. Tipton as third couple. A number of pretty cotillion figures were danced in the course of the party. One that provided particular amusement was the Yale-Harvard figure. The boys and girls each were divided into four teams. The two boys' teams then had an apple race, with the girls rooting for their teams. The winning boys then had the choice of the girls for their dance partners in the next figure. A "Paul Jones" dance proved much fun. The party closed with a confettl battle. During the intermission for refreshments Winifred Woods played two plane solos. "March Militaire." by Schubert and one of Chopirfs waltzes. There were present Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Stewart Lieut and Mrs. Thos N. Gimperng, Miss Susan Grothe Capt. E. L. Time The Ironing, Madam!

Keep time on the flatwork-sheets, pillow cases, table linen, towels, etc.—and compare it, after adding the cost of a laundress, cost of soap and gas to cost of ironing—compare it then with the prices we charge.

You'll agree with us then that it pays in the saving of time, money and worry to let us do it.
